Our Lenten penances shouldn't simply be exercises in self-discipline, but rather a participation in the love of God

By Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori 3/1/2023

ON MY WAY to the most recent meeting of the Knights Columbus Board of Directors, my flight was delayed. First it was an hour. Then another. After a five-and-a-half hour delay and a four-and-a-half-hour flight, I finally arrived at my destination at 3 o'clock in the morning.

For some, Lent can feel like a lot like my travel experience: a test of one's patience and endurance. And so often, we just give up the struggle. Our Lenten resolve weakens. We abandon bodily penance and relax our efforts to overcome our vices. Patience and endurance run out.

But Lent is not a do-it-yourself moral improvement program. Rather, it is about opening the heart anew to God's love. It is a gift from God, a time rich in grace when he helps his children get rid of all that hinders us from sharing in his life and love. Bodily penances and spiritual exercises are the means the Holy Spirit employs to purify our hearts, enabling us to renew and deepen our relationship with God and neighbor. The more deeply we grow to love God, the more we will be like God and love like him.

God created us in love to reflect his truth, goodness and beauty, and to return freely the love he has showered on us. Yet, from the beginning, sin entered the picture, and humanity has willfully rejected God's love, refusing to be what God created us to be: living reflections of his glory. Scripture attests that this continual infidelity deeply wounds God's unchanging, infinite, passionate love.

One of the most beautiful attributes of God is his patient endurance. The Psalms repeatedly praise God because he is "slow to anger and abounding in mercy." Despite the persistence of sinfulness, God has not given up on us.

In assuming our humanity, the Son of God revealed the Father's patient and enduring love. He preached a message of repentance. He told us the parable of the Prodigal Son. He healed the sick and raised the dead as a sign of his power over sin and death. But in the end, the Lord of glory was crucified. In his passion and death, the innocent Lamb of God patiently bore on his shoulders the sins of the world.

As Jesus underwent his agony, he revealed the enormity and ugliness of sin. Though sinless, he experienced the darkness and alienation from God produced by sin. His wounds penetrated to his heart and revealed the woundedness of the Father's loving heart. Jesus endured all of this out of love for his Father and for us. In the end, his patient endurance unleashed the power of God's changeless love, which alone overcame sin and death. This is the victory that we celebrate as Lent gives way to Holy Week and Easter.

As we receive God's patient and enduring love and are transformed by it, we become participants in Christ's redeeming love. We too bear the cross, for the redemption of our own sins and the sins of others.

If our Lenten penances are understood in this light, and undertaken in faith and with openness to God's grace, they take us to the very heart of God's love for us, which is revealed in Jesus' death and resurrection. They help us come to terms with our sinfulness. They open us to the love the crucified and risen Savior continues to lavish on us in the Holy Eucharist and other sacraments. As we receive God's patient and enduring love and are transformed by it, we become participants in Christ's redeeming love. We too bear the cross, for the redemption of our own sins and the sins of others. We learn how to forgive.

Patient and enduring love is the hallmark of a true disciple. It is also our hallmark as Knights of Columbus. Experience teaches that unity and fraternity demand charity – not merely the charity to defuse tensions but the patient and enduring charity that comes from God. "Be imitators of God, as beloved children," Paul wrote, "and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God" (Eph 5:1-2)

SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles.” (Gospel for March 2, Lk 6:43-44)

Scripture often reminds us that our faith must be made evident through our works, through the good that we do. If we are truly prayerful and holy in an interior way, we will also be productive in the world. Like a tree, we will be known by the fruit we produce. May we always be mindful that faith calls us to lead lives of virtue in service to God and neighbor.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to prayerfully identify at least one area of your life where you could bear better fruit. Then, guided by the Holy Spirit, undertake at least one concrete resolution to improve.

Questions for Reflection:

To borrow an old question: If you were accused of being a Christian, would there be sufficient evidence to convict you? Where do you see room for improvement in turning your faith into action? What opportunities does the Knights of Columbus provide to help you bear good fruit?

My Argument for God:

In my past reflections I have written about the concept of how God created the universe, that in fact there is no random selection, but rather divine design, Gods guiding hand in the evolution of the cosmos that brought us to where we are now. I used the analogy that God sits down in front of his God computer and writes the perfect program that defines everything that happened after he hit the start button, which, in my analogy, was the Big Bang. That said, the argument for natural selection argues there is no God. I'll get to that in a moment.

An interesting question came up a while back in COR Men's Group on the subject of free will. If in fact everything was predetermined from the beginning, then where is our free will? On the face of that question, it would seem there is no easy answer.

But consider for a moment that in God's perfect program, he determined that we, human beings who are sentient, self-aware creatures, (and in fact the only creatures on this planet who are), are capable of determining our own destiny, our own direction. We are free to explore our own conditions, our own surroundings, our own planet, our own cosmos, and free to ask questions about our existence.

Consider that all of this was part of Gods original perfect program.

In Paradiso, the third poem in The Devine Comedy, Dante makes an interesting observation: "Only man's sin annuls man's liberty." Dante is looking at free will from a different perspective, he's saying that sin takes away from our free will to seek God.

Bishop Barron makes the point that in our very DNA we are all pre-wired for God, and if that's true, and I believe it is, then our free-will is about seeking out and living in the beauty of God's eternal love, living in the pure happiness and joy of God's presence, seeking what Adam and Eve lost, the pure joy of God. Everything after that, all through the Testaments, Old and New, all the way to where we are now, has been about our free will to journey back into God's presence.

That the human race, in our very core, in our very DNA, is wired for God also explains our search for God all thru our known history, from all the gods of Egypt, Greece, Rome and all the ancient tribes of the world, to our final realization of one true God.

And so, the question is this:

How would the human race, from the very core of our existence, from the very beginning of our known history, instinctively know there has always been something greater than us, and to instinctively know to search for God if there is no God who had instilled that instinct in us in the first place?

There is only one obvious answer

God ... and I would argue that our natural instinct to search for Him is, in itself, proof that He exists.

Korean & Vietnam War Census Program

Fourth Degree Regalia

The Fourth Degree will conduct a census of the membership to establish a record of service in the Korean and Vietnam Wars.

Following the World Wars, the Order documented war service by its members in the archives at the Blessed Michael J. McGivney Pilgrimage Center however similar efforts were not conducted following either the Korean or Vietnam Wars.

The Korean War commenced in 1950, making the approximate minimum age of surviving veterans ninety-one years old. The approximate minimum age of surviving Vietnam veterans serving from 1965-1973 is 68-76 years old. Both the Korean and Vietnam Wars marked a significant departure in how troops served and returned from war, as service was no longer for the duration. Gone were the hero's welcome on return. Vietnam veterans returned to a hostile and divided nation, where they were either overlooked or criticized for their service.

For Assemblies working in conjunction with their assigned councils in conducting the census of their membership please use the most current form;
Korea/Vietnam: <https://forms.office.com/r/BL1Zd93Lms>

Where possible, documented service of deceased members needs to be recorded. Inclusion in the census shall be limited to veterans meeting the requirements established by Congress for the Korean Service Medal you must have served from June 25, 1950, to July 27, 1953, and was on permanent assignment or on temporary duty for 30 consecutive days or 60 non-consecutive days and performed his duty within the country of Korea. For the Vietnam Service Medals, you must of served from July 3 1965 to March 28 1973 and was on temporary duty for at least 30 consecutive days or 60 non-consecutive days or have served in combat with a unit directly supporting a military operation in Southeast Asia (Vietnam and the contiguous waters and airspace in Thailand, Laos, or Cambodia; or the airspace thereof and in the direct support of military operations in Vietnam.

Certificates recognizing service will be delivered to surviving veterans via their councils. District Masters, it is recommended that you reach out to all your Faithful Navigators to collaborate with their local Grand Knights to hold a party or dinner for those Veterans receiving the certificate. There should also be a 4th Degree Honor Guard present during the certificate presentation. Let us show our appreciation to those veterans in our council who served in these two wars and to let them know that their sacrifices are not forgotten.

Ron Boyce 4th Degree Director of Programs

Uniform

Regalia Wear – the KofC Fourth Degree standard is “One Button” used on the jacket. See the Drill Manual for photographic examples. The Bottom Button of the jacket is not used.

Could you wear the Fourth Degree uniform blazer with other slacks and a regular tie when going out? The answer is: No

Our uniform was designed to be worn complete with the Fourth Degree blazer, official slacks, tie, and official Fourth Degree pin (PG-113). It also requires a white dress shirt with no button-down collar, black shoes, and black socks. However, it may be worn in social settings such as Knights of Columbus events, banquets, exemplifications, meetings, and church.

The other components of the uniform are used when participating in our color corps (color guard or honor guard). Those include the official beret with flash representing office (if any), white gloves, a service baldric, a Fourth Degree sword with scabbard. Flag bearers would not wear baldric or sword. (Note that the service baldric is either a general member baldric or else a specific color to indicate your current office held).

So, if you want to show your pride as a member of the Fourth Degree, then wear all the components according to the laws and rules of the Fourth Degree.

If you have any other questions on training your members, please email me at MJPKNIGHT9282@aol.com.

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
 bright dawn of the new world,
 Mother of the living,
 to you do we entrust the cause of life:
 Look down, O Mother,
 upon the vast numbers
 of babies not allowed to be born,
 of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
 of men and women
 who are victims of brutal violence,
 of the elderly and the sick killed
 by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
 Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of Life with honesty and love
 to the people of our time.
 Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel
 as a gift ever new,
 the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
 the civilization of truth and love,
 to the praise and glory of God,
 the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,

be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;

and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,

by the power of God,

cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits

who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
