“My God. My God, why have you forsaken me?”

Growing up in the Church when I was just a kid, I always thought this was a plea from Jesus to God to make it all stop, to take this all away from him, much like his prayer the night before in the garden of Getsemani. I thought he was, just for a moment, as I would be in His place, scared of dying.

But let me get back to that in a moment:

One of the things, one of the beautiful things I have learned on my journey back into the Church is the truly poetic beauty and importance of the Psalms. These are prayers to God, some written through the centuries from Moses on, and others thought to have been written by David, which were songs of praise, of desperation, of loss, of redemption, and of hope and trust in God and His love.

I started to appreciate the Psalms when I committed to praying the Liturgy of the Hours, the Catholic Church’s tradition of praying several times a day, and is the second most important prayer of the Church, second only to the Liturgy of the Mass.

While the Psalms stand on their own, and always have through the centuries; and are part of the central prayers in Jewish prayer tradition, the Church understands that the Psalms are also the prayers Jesus prayed to his Father daily.

Now let me get back to where I started:

“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me.” Is Jesus giving up hope, or is he, as he did all through his life, praying to His Father. Clearly Jesus is praying a Psalm. “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me” is the first verse in Psalm 22. Now when you read the entire Psalm, you begin to get the sense of the significance of that Psalm, in that place, on that day, and in that moment.

Psalm 22 in all it’s desperation, and at the same time, in all it’s hope and trust in, and love of, God, written by David a thousand years before, speaks in some way to the entire ministry of Christ. The Navarre Bible comments that when Jesus spoke those words nailed to the cross, He was making the feelings of love and trust in God in that Psalm his own feelings as well.

But in a more direct way, the Psalm speaks more clearly to the crucifixion of Christ:

Vs 16-18: “Yea, dogs are round bout me; they have pierced my hands and feet. I count all my bones – they stare and gloat over me; they divide my garments among them and for my raiment they cast lots.”

This is the Psalm Jesus chose to pray in that place, on that day, and at that moment ... and now we know why.

Jesus, on that day and in that place, as He had throughout His entire ministry, was once again fulfilling the Scriptures that told of His coming as The Messiah who would save the world.

MAY 2024

SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are.” (Gospel for May 12, Jn 17:11b)

Jesus desires that his disciples be united in his name: one body, one faith, one church. It is vital for our own families to remain united in faith. It is not easy to raise and form children in the Catholic faith in today’s confused culture. But as Holy Cross Father Patrick Peyton, the “rosary priest,” said, “The family that prays together stays together.”

Let us keep our family united by staying united to Christ in prayer.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

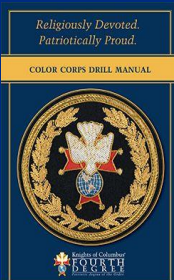

This month — the month of Mary — I challenge you to pray the rosary daily with your entire household, offering at least one decade for the unity of your family and the Church.

Questions for Reflection:

Do you pray regularly with your family beyond grace at meals or attending Mass? In what ways might praying together increase your family’s unity? What are some simple, specific ways you could practice family prayer in your home?

Uniform Talk

The Color Corp of the Patriotic Degree

Worthies, the Supreme Master has encountered some Sir Knights inappropriately wearing name badges on the uniform. Please get the word out to your assemblies about proper wearing conditions.

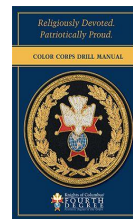

As a reminder;

1. Any member may wear their assembly's Fourth Degree badge on the uniform.
2. It is worn on the right-hand side, level with the top of the left-hand pocket.
3. It is worn in social settings only. Never in an honor guard.
4. It should have a magnetic or pin backing since there is no pocket on the right breast.
5. There is no requirement for a specific style of badge nor a necessity to order a special badge from Knights Gear.
6. A member in Memphis asked the WSM if he could just add a magnetic backing to his current badge, and he said that would be fine.
7. The only exception to a Fourth Degree badge are badges of office for current state officers (including DDs) and a Past State Deputy.

Peace:

Where there is injury,
pardon;

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace
to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude
throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,

be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;

and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,

by the power of God,

cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits

who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
