Lord Jesus Christ, who is called the Prince of Peace, who are yourself our peace and reconciliation, who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace.
Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice, and brotherly love.

Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.

Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.

May all peoples on the earth become as brothers and sisters.

May longed for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all.

Supreme Chaplain's Monthly Challenge

October 2026

They replied, “Caesar’s.” At that he said to them, “Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” (Gospel for Oct. 18, Mt 22:21)

The Pharisees were trying to entrap Jesus into taking sides in the dispute. Are the faithful to be good Jews or good citizens? But Jesus says there is no conflict here. One can be a solid citizen and maintain his true and proper obligations to the civil government, as long as he gives primacy to his duties to God. We should keep in mind that the Knights of Columbus was founded with the understanding that faithful Catholics are also faithful citizens.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to study how the Knights of Columbus, at the time of its founding and throughout its history, has combated anti-Catholic bigotry and shown there is no conflict between love of God and love of country. The book The Knights of Columbus: An Illustrated History (2020) is an excellent resource.

Questions for Reflection:

Do you obey civil law and authority, even in smaller matters, or do you tend to rationalize infractions? Do you fulfill your civic duties, such as by voting? Do you consider moral issues when voting, beyond mere self-interest?

My argument for not throwing the baby out with the wash

As you all know, I spent an “interesting” morning in Rust ED Tuesday Sept 1st with severe chest pains that were typical of a heart attack. Rio Rancho EMT's arrived and started an EKG. The EMT administering said he saw nothing that indicated a heart attack but did see something interesting. Well, apparently that's the part Pam heard, and so that's what she sent in her texts and e-mails.

I am deeply humbled by the outpouring of love and prayers for me that morning, and for days after. Pam told me later our granddaughters and grandson were very upset when they heard, and our daughter-in-law was in tears. I guess I never realized what an impact I have had on our family and friends. I just keep on going thru life doing my best to be the best person I can because that's what Jesus teaches us, never really thinking about who's affected by me.

There's a lesson here for all of us. Keep living our lives as kind, ethical, caring, and loving human beings, because, as I have said before, you don't always know who's watching. My family was deeply concerned, and I love them for that, but my 7-year-old granddaughter being as upset as she was drove that home to me. Because she's been watching!

There is something else here that is equally, if not more, important. Pam effectively communicated in a way, using words that everyone understood, what was happening that morning. She was communicating with human beings, on a person-to-person basis. The only thing technology was involved in, was that it was the tool she used to communicate.

OK, let's go down that rabbit hole...

In the July/August issue of Columbia, Leonard DeLorenzo's article on Pope Leo's Magnifica Humanitas discusses some of the more salient points of his encyclical. As we all know, this encyclical discusses, at great length, A.I., something Pope Leo XIV has expressed concern with ever since he became pope. In a very important way, this Leo's encyclical mirrors Pope Leo XIII's 1891 encyclical, Rerum Novarum, in which that Leo confronts the most important technological issue of his day, the industrial revolution, its impact on the human being, and the Church' approach to it.

Pope Leo XIV asks the basic question, “What are we building”? To this question he discusses two important Biblical images, The Tower of Babel, raised to “make a name” for its builders without reference to God, and the rebuilding of Jerusalem under Nehemiah, where a ruined city rose again not by one strong hand but through the shared labor of all, for the praise of God.

While I haven't read the entire encyclical, I have read Pope Leo's introduction to it.

When talking about Babel, Pope Leo writes:

“The project, (the Tower of Babel), concealed a profound danger. It was a project conceived without reference to God, supported by a uniformity that eliminated diversity and that chose homogenization over communion. When a city is built on pride and the claim to self-sufficiency, communication breaks down, languages are confused and people no longer understand each other, (7).”

This question of our ability to communicate effectively has been with us for ages. In her book, “Awake, Not Woke”, Noelle Mering makes the point that our ability to communicate with each other in an effective way relies on the common understanding of the words we use.

By changing the language Babel was not the salvation of that society, but it’s destruction.

In building a new Jerusalem, Leo makes these points:

1. Building a city founded on the common good implies, first and foremost, building on a firm relationship with God. (11)
2. Secondly, building for the common good means accepting the limits and weakness of humanity without considering them an error to be corrected. (12)
3. Thirdly, building a world in which everyone can flourish requires shared responsibility and courage. (13).

First: we have seen over the years an intentional effort to remove God from our society.

Second: accepting our limits and weakness is human, and that’s one of the major differences between us and AI: we accept our limits and weakness, we learn from them, we adjust to them, and we recognize them as part of our humanity: AI sees those limits and weaknesses as errors to be corrected. (Scary when you think about it).

The third point speaks to our shared responsibility as the faithful of the Church to be a participant in guiding how A.I. is used, not only in the Church, but in the world around us. Those of us who have lived in the IT world remember the phrase, “garbage in, garbage out”; and we clearly recognize that speaks directly to A.I.

Is A.I. Babel, or do we use it as a tool to better our society, to help better evangelize the Gospel of Jesus to the world, as a tool the Church uses to better our condition, to rebuild Jerusalem?

A.I. has the power to do both. Having recently retired from Healthcare I.T. I know that, at least in some part, the diagnosis and treatment I received that day in the emergency room was driven by A.I., and I got good treatment.

Is Artificial Intelligence good or bad? Seen through the lens of Pope Leo’s question and the images he uses the answer is “yes”. To Pope Leo’s first point, we know that there is a portion of our society without God, and a larger portion with God. And so, we know there is bad A.I. and there is good A.I. It really is just that simple.

Let’s face it, like nuclear weapons, that Genie’s out of the bottle, and will never be put back in. To try to stop A.I. now is akin to throwing the baby out with the wash.

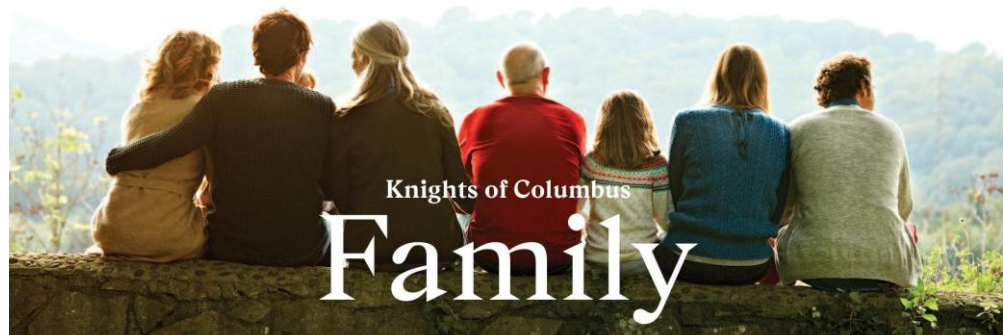

So, the answer now lies in how we, the human race, choses to develop and use A.I.

I strongly encourage you to read DeLorenzo’s article, and Pope Leo’s encyclical.

Amen.

National Flag Etiquette

Since many of us are celebrating important milestones in our countries, it is an ideal time to review the mandatory protocols for handling and displaying the flag. As patriotic members of the Fourth Degree, maintaining the highest standards of flag etiquette is our distinct duty.

Please ensure the following rules are strictly observed across all assemblies and events:

1. The Position of Honor

- The Flag's Right: The right side is traditionally the place of honor (representing the historic sword arm). The union of the flag is always given the honor point: the marching right, the flag's own right, or an observer's left.
- Sanctuary & Stage Placement: In a public auditorium or chapel, the National Flag must stand in advance of the audience at the speaker's or chaplain's right as he faces the room. Any other flags must be placed to his left.

2. Proper Display & Decoration

- Display Flat: The flag should always be displayed flat. It must never be festooned over doorways, tied in a bowknot, or fashioned into a rosette.
- Bunting: Never drape the flag over a speaker's desk or platform front. Use patriotic bunting instead, arranged with blue on top, white in the middle, and red on the bottom.
- No Alterations: No lettering, figures, or objects of any kind may ever be placed on or attached to the National Flag.

3. Processions & Color Guard Protocol

- Marching Order: In a procession, the National Flag takes the marching right (the observer's left) or stands directly in front of the center of the flag line.
- The No-Dip Rule: When carried by a Knights of Columbus Color Guard, the National Flag will never be dipped by way of salute or compliment to any person or object.

4. Multiple National Flags

- When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they must be flown from separate staffs of the same height.

Thank you for your dedicated leadership and for preserving the dignity of our National Colors across the Order.

Message From Fourth Degree Director of Training

Proper Present Sword

At a recent honor guard at my Parish, we had 14 Sir Knights that came early in the week for an Honor Guard.

How thankful we were for so many to show during the week. Our brothers that attended were mostly retired, and mainly over the age of 70.

We practiced our entrance, recession, and escorting the gifts for 30 minutes prior to the mass.

After mass the deacon serving was a Fourth-Degree brother Knight and member of our assembly. I asked, "how did we look?"

His response was one I was waiting for, "You guys looked great, but your swords were everywhere"

When dealing with an honor guard of men who varied in age from the late 50's to the early 80's, how does the honor guard stay consistent?

Practice is certainly a top choice but also keeping in mind the strength of your members and knowing if any member may have lost the ability to hold a sword at attention for a long period of time. This would require the CCC, Marshal, or whoever is leading the honor guard to be sensitive to when you go to present, where you place your weaker members in line, and how long you wait before you line up. Let's be sensitive to our aging members who have given a lot of time, effort, and energy to the Fourth Degree, we want them to participate as long as they can, but to also make sure that we are presenting ourselves in the best possible way. Any other suggestions you have would be appreciated and shared.

Just to refresh all of us, here is the proper present sword for all honor guards.

Fraternally,

Michael J. Porter, PSD,FM,FVSM

Culture of Life

Worthy Grand Knights,

This past Thursday morning, what many of us feared was coming was confirmed: a second taxpayer-funded abortion mega-facility is now being planned, this one for Las Vegas, New Mexico. This was announced at the 2026 UNM Board of Regents meeting, where the project's own overseer stated that Las Vegas, New Mexico "...would be the ideal location..."

This is not a rumor. It is not speculation, and THIS Brothers can NOT sit well with any of us. This message of a culture of Death in our State cannot go unanswered. There is no "ideal" location in this state for the reckless taking of innocent lives, and for the destruction it brings to the women and families caught in New Mexico's abortion epidemic. We cannot and will not pretend this changes nothing for us. It changes everything, especially how quickly we need to move. Northern New Mexico is no longer watching this crisis from a distance — it is now the target and will soon have a street address.

New Mexico is a state that once was known for its faith and its Culture and they were the Pride of its people. NOW this state is known for ONE thing, being the MURDER capital of the United States. Our Families, our people have lost their way and we Gentlemen have to stand now. We are our Brother's Keeper and we are called to know and try and stop the sin of our those around us. We joined the Coalition of Life to engage in the fight against the Center in Las Cruces and though we slowed it down, our engagement was not enough and now, Now a second one is being built in the North.

Brothers We cannot sit Idle. We are not Men of Faith if we continue to not engage this atrocity of our faith and our culture. We need to longer just accept that the right to take a life is "healthcare." We have to stand for the Unborn and we have to stand for our Faith and be the men that our Lord has called us to be.

I am asking every Grand Knight to do the following now:

Meet with your council's parish priest as soon as possible and discuss:

- The most effective way to inform all parishioners of this new threat to Las Vegas and northern New Mexico, but remember to respect the Decision of your Priest. This could include both pulpit announcements and bulletin inserts.
- A simple after-Mass sign-up table, so your parish and council have every hand ready to act the moment the plan is finalized. This can, in effect, be the beginning of your Parish Pro-Life Committee.

If you or any council members have questions about this initiative or would like sample bulletin inserts or pulpit announcements to bring to your parish priest, contact Bennie Gonzales — Coalition Point of Contact from Council 15381, Holy Faith of Saint Anne Council — who is ready to assist you. Contact him at (505) 231-9245 or bgonzbg@aol.com.

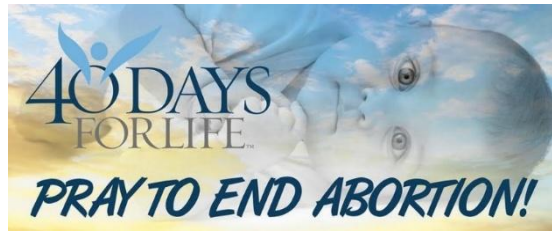

Brothers, we have been given something the Las Cruces facility never gave us: fair warning. Our Lord does not ask us to be caught by surprise twice by the same evil — He asks us to be ready. Let every council in this state answer that readiness now, not later, so that when history asks what the Knights of Columbus did the moment we knew, the answer is already written in what we did today.

Vivat Jesus!

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

*In your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters.
In this life you embraced them with your tender love; deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest. The old order has passed away:
welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen*

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,

be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;

and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,

by the power of God,

cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Knights of

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
