Advent comes from the Latin word meaning "coming." Jesus is coming, and Advent is intended to be a season of preparation for His arrival. While we typically regard Advent as a joyous season, it is also intended to be a period of preparation, much like Lent. Prayer, penance and fasting are appropriate during this season.

Advent is not as strict as Lent, and there are no rules for fasting, but it is meant to be a period of self-preparation. The purple color associated with Advent is also the color of penance. The faithful should fast during the first two weeks in particular and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The color of the Third Sunday of Advent is rose. This color symbolizes joy and represents the happiness we will experience when Jesus comes again. The Third Sunday is a day of anticipatory celebration. It is formerly called "Gaudete" Sunday; gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin.

Finally, Sundays during Advent, just as during Lent, should not be given to fasting, but instead to celebration because we celebrate the resurrection of Our Lord every Sunday. It is important to remember, however, there are no particular rules for how the laity should observe Advent.

Advent 2021 begins on Sunday, November 28 and ends on Thursday, December 24.

November 2021

Supreme Chaplain's Monthly Challenge

“Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.” (Gospel for Nov. 7, Mk 12:43-44)

“Give until it hurts” might seem like a tired old cliché, but it has merit nonetheless. It’s fairly easy to give from our excess — what we don’t really need — but real sacrifice begins when we go beyond that. The widow in the parable, in giving what to many people would be a bit of loose change, offered a more meaningful gift than the wealthy who donated far larger sums they would hardly miss. But there’s another layer of meaning here: Unlike the wealthy, the widow gave everything she had to God and put her trust completely in his divine providence. May we recognize that she made the wiser investment.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to review your charitable giving and to pray about whether God is asking you to contribute something more. Second, I challenge you to participate in your council’s Food for Families or Coats for Kids Faith in Action program.

Questions for Reflection:

How does God wish you to balance providing for yourself and your family with serving others? Do you find you put your trust in material goods and wealth, rather than in God? What are some specific, concrete ways you might do better at sharing your blessings with the less fortunate?

From Worthy Lecturer SK Jimm White

Lately I've been reading The Screwtape Letters, by C.S. Lewis. He was a professor in the 1940's in England, right in the heart of WW II. But more than that I think he was a prophet. So much of what the demon, Screwtape, says to his underling, Wormwood, would seem to be more true today than it was in his time. But if you understand the social undercurrent that goes back to Marx you understand what we see today is nothing new, it existed then as well.

Marx, and Engel's, in their Communist Manifesto, demands the total and complete destruction of society as we know it. The riots two summers ago, when BLM for example was destroying statues of Abraham Lincoln, seen through the lens of Marxist Socialism, shows us the riots were not about social justice, they were about the fulfillment of Marx's demand to completely destroy society and replace it with Socialism. We've seen it before, the Russian revolution of 1917, and the early years of Nazi Germany. History has recorded the results. Millions dead.

In his early writings before his manifesto, Marx clearly hates religion, ALL religion, but specifically Christianity, and even more specifically, the Catholic Church. Ironically his hatred of religion becomes a religion in its own rite, Socialism.

Marx understood that religion was the undercurrent of most all societies, and to destroy those societies he had to first destroy religion. Understanding this gives us a deeper understanding of the attacks on the Church, both from within, and without. Socialism must destroy God and Religion and replace it with the state.

In the face of this we ask, "what can we do to push back, it all seems too far gone". To destroy your enemy, you must first know your enemy. Our enemy is Satan, and his Screwtapes, his demons, are Marx and Alinski and their followers.

While the scandal's in the Church must be addressed, dealing with these without understanding the core problem is akin to putting out spot fires while the forest is burning down.

If Socialism's goal is to destroy religion, and the strength of religion is faith, prayer, and unity, then our tools to push back must be faith, prayer, and unity. Our faith in God and the teachings of his Son and our savior, Jesus Christ, must grow stronger, deeper, and more foundational in our daily lives. This means cutting through all the politics and all the noise and spending more quiet time in prayer, scriptures, and the sacraments. But you must know this, as you grow closer to God, your temptations to stop and let it all go, will grow stronger as well. It has been said, "the devil leaves you alone if you're already living in sin".

I believe in God and his promises, "Many are the troubles of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him from them all", Ps 34:20. I believe in Jesus Christ, I believe in the Catholic Church, not just the structures of men who are subject to their failings of faith, but the Church that Jesus founded on the Rock of Peter.

And I believe we will get through this because I believe in the promise that Jesus made: "And the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" .....

Lord, make me an instrument of Your Peace:

Where there is
hatred, let me sow
love;

Where there is
injury, pardon;

Where there is
doubt, faith;

Where there is
despair, hope;

Where there is
darkness, light;

And where there is
sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as
to understand;
To be loved, as to
love;

For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

And it is in dying
that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen

Letter to Mommy and Daddy after Abortion

Mommy... why did you hurt me?

Daddy did you know?
Why didn't you fight for
my life?

Jesus said I would have looked just like you Your hair, your eyes, and even your smile
I know you didn't mean it
Mommy

Daddy I know you love
me.

Daddy, you will never get to see me

You'll miss my first words, you'll miss me
fall and get up.

Mommy, you'll never get to comb my hair or paint
my nails, you'll miss me
go to kindergarten

You guys will miss my whole life And I will
to....

But don't worry, I am with Jesus now.... Next time think about what you are doing, and who
you are hurting,

I AM A PERSON

Mommy, Daddy, I love
you, wish you would have loved me too

Faith and Action Friday

Call to all Knights to join a group of prayer warriors, from the Albuquerque community every Friday morning to fight for the right to life and to pray for the unborn.

DATE: EVERY FRIDAY

TIME: 10:00 AM

LOCATION: 2301 Yale Blvd SE, Albuquerque, NM

The University of New Mexico's abortion facility

Let's stand together as a unified voice in prayer for life by strategically and prayerfully stepping out in faith. Bring your pro-life signs, rosary, bibles, and spirit of faith that someday through prayer and God's will, this facility will be shut down for good.

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son
may proclaim the Gospel of life
with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace
to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude
throughout their lives
and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build,
together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

K of C Insurance

From SK Bob Brunoni, Field Agent

With holidays approaching we get busier and busier...right through to the end of the year. It seems nearly non-stop with family gatherings, holiday shopping, special programs at the parish and at schools. Everybody gets busy! From what I've read about shipping and trucking delays of getting shelves restocked it looks like Christmas shopping will need to start even earlier for many.

As busy as you are, here is one item that needs your attention: If you have not yet completed the Annual Survey, please take just a few minutes and respond. It's easier than ever; it can be done online at www.KofCSurvey2021.org. Your responses help me understand your current situation better. That in turn allows me to be of better service to you. For some of you that means referring you or a family member to one of our many fraternal benefits. For others it may mean updating important contact or family information. Still others may benefit from a comprehensive look at their current insurance plans. With our new financial needs analysis tool and a few minutes together I can give you an accurate picture of where you stand when it comes to your family's protection. With our full suite of products, life insurance, long-term care insurance, disability income insurance and retirement annuities, I can help in most any situation.

Our financial needs analysis allows me to gather information from you and make fact-based recommendations based on your wants, needs, and desires. With the help of computer modeling we can look at a variety of scenarios and help ensure you are on the right track regardless what lies ahead.

Now, before things get too busy, let's meet and take a look at where you stand. Maybe you're in good shape in one area, but could use some shoring up in another. Those blind spots can be problematic, but once identified you can take the necessary steps to address them.

Thank you to the many brothers who have met with me so far this year. I've been very fortunate to be of service to them and their families. Even as the end of the year gets busy, I look forward to helping more.

S&P Global Ratings issued a report that ranked all its rated North American Life Insurance Companies from strongest to weakest. You should be proud to know that your Knights of Columbus are tied for first! *

The Knights is one of six companies – out of a total of 66 – that has an AA+ rating on financial strength, and a stable outlook. S&P also lists the Knights as having a “very strong” business risk profile, and an “excellent” financial risk profile.

Financial strength and stability are on a lot of people’s minds lately, and it’s reassuring to know that the Knights stand tall among the competition.

However, this unprecedented international crisis may be impacting your family, please know that I am here to help you review your situation and discuss how the Knights may be able to help.

And – to respect social distancing protocols – we have transitioned to virtual meetings. I can meet with you over the computer whenever you’d like.

So let’s chat! Let me know sometimes that work for you, and together we can figure out how the Knights’ best-in-class financial strength can help protect you and your family.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
