SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” (Gospel for Nov. 16, Lk 21:17-19)

Jesus promised his faithful disciples many things — that he will always be with us, that we will receive if we ask, and that he would give us rest. He also promised that we would be hated and that we would be persecuted for the sake of his name. We must persevere and remain faithful despite the hardships we suffer for our faith. May we always put into action St. Paul’s admonition: “Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer” (Rom 12:12).

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to learn more about the lives of the saints by selecting one or more martyrs to read about and then reflecting on how you can imitate his or her perseverance and hope.

Questions for Reflection:

Have you ever struggled with hope when life has brought challenges? Have you ever experienced bigotry, rejection, hostility or hatred on account of your Catholic faith? What are some concrete ways you can seek to grow in perseverance to face life’s difficulties?

My Argument for Meeting in the Middle, v2.0

A few years after Pam and I were married I found myself sitting in a bar in Oshkosh, Wi. How I got there and why I was there is another story for another day.

While sitting there with some of the folks from New Mexico Aviation Division, I was witness to something, that only until very recently, I had difficulty understanding.

As so often happens in bars, this one being a pilot's bar, strangers strike up conversations, and in this case, it was one of the men from our group, a retired US Air Force fighter pilot, who flew F4 Phantoms in Viet Nam, and a man with a strong Russian accent, who openly admitted that Russian fighter pilots had flown for North Viet Nam. He was later introduced as Victor Belinko. The same Victor Belinko who defected to a US Air Force Airbase in Japan on September 6th, 1976, with a Russian Mig 25 "Foxbat".

Victor was asked the standard question, "how do you like being in America?" He answered he has been treated well, much better than Russian propaganda ever said he would be, then, with a sheepish grin on his face, he made the comment he liked American women better than Russian women, because American women smelled better.

Then the conversation turned to what I still have trouble describing. These two fighter pilots realized that on one day, all those years ago in Viet Nam, they faced each other in a dog fight they both remembered very well. Neither could get the upper hand, and only fuel reserves ended that encounter. Both talked about the skill of the other, both said the other was the best fighter pilot they had ever flown against.

The years between Viet Nam and Oshkosh had passed, and barriers had been broken down. Now here they were in a bar in Oshkosh, drinking beer, telling stories, laughing with each other. As the night ended, I realized that what I had just witnessed was a bond between these two worriers that had been cemented in combat all those years ago in the skies over Viet Nam.

The irony of what I saw that night was strangely satisfying, but I didn't understand why, I couldn't describe how it felt. It wasn't until the last few weeks, after going back and reading one of my past reflections, that I came to understand that satisfaction.

It was my reflection from January, 2022, where I talked about Tyler Perry's challenge to all of us to come the middle, to break down the barriers, to listen, and to talk with each other, not at each other. It was after Charlie Kirks assignation I went back to re-read my comments about Tyler Perry, and suddenly I was able to put it all together.

These two men, who had tried so hard all those years before in Viet Nam to destroy the other, on that night in Oshkosh; these two men had come to the middle and talked. And when the night was over, they parted ways as friends.

In this world today, there is good and there is evil. The Tyler Perry's and Charlie Kirks, the Knights of Columbus, the Catholic Church and so many other Christian, Jewish and God-fearing communities are examples of the good in this world.

The forces that hate all of these are the evil in this world.

It must seem obvious, but as these forces of good are growing, and they are, especially after Charlie's assignation, the forces of evil are becoming increasingly desperate. And it is important to understand this point because, I think, it gives a clearer understanding, a better perspective, of what we're seeing in our world today. The forces of good don't riot, they don't assassinate, they don't demonize, they don't hate.

And yet, these are the very tactics of the forces of evil.

The forces of good seek to love God and our neighbors. The forces of good seek to unite in the middle to listen and to talk, and even if we don't always agree, seek to start that conversation and sew that seed.

The forces of evil seek at every turn to divide us, to pit us against each other, to hate others who don't agree with them, and if necessary, to stop the forces of good by any means available.

This is going to get louder, and in some cases, more violent. But we know that if we live in the forces of good, we will prevail. All through the Bible, Old Testament and New, God tells us he will always be with us. We know Jesus will not fail us. Paul tells us in his second letter to Timothy: "If we have died with Him, we will also live with Him; if we endure, we will also reign with Him."

As Knights, we are commanded in our very Exemplification to put on the Armor of God. This command echo's Paul's exhortation to the Ephesians 6:10-12

"Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms".

We have a lot to share!

First, we are excited to announce that our next raffle will be for this highly desirable 1959 Chevy Apache 31, a 1/2-ton pickup truck!

It has been years since we brought you a V8 truck, and this one is very special. You can see all of it's build stats on our website. This pickup has the power and comfort to cruise Route 66 from beginning to end!

Second, last year's raffle brought you two prize cars during the same raffle, and we are grateful to everyone who supported us. This year, we made the decision to bring you two V8's again, in a new way!

We will raffle two V8s back-to-back, each over a shorter amount of time, giving you a chance to win more often!

The drawing for the 1959 Chevy Apache will be held on Saturday, February 14, 2026 during the Bishop's Mardi Gras, hosted by the Catholic Peoples Foundation, in Gallup, New Mexico.

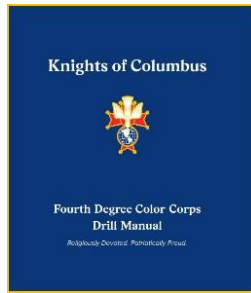

The next raffle will follow directly after it, and the drawing for that prize will be held on Saturday, July 25, 2026 during the 100th Anniversary Celebrations of Route 66 in Gallup, New Mexico! (We are so excited to share that car, but we will wait juuuuust a little bit longer.)

Third, we have a great need this year! We had two seminarians, and ordained one to the priesthood this Summer. Then we added three new men as seminarians this month, so we will be helping to pay for the schooling of four seminarians this year!!!

So join us for two amazing raffles and help us support the poorest diocese in the United States. Thank you for your continued support!

Need not be present to win, and as always "We pay the taxes!"

In Step

Color Guard Competition

It is time to prepare your Color Guards for the second competition this fraternal year! We are pleased to announce the First International Fourth Degree Color Guard Competition.

This competition will take place during the worldwide Catholic Patriot Day on Tuesday, November 11, 2025. The objective is to highlight the Fourth Degree Color Guard's purpose of encouraging active Catholic citizenship and fostering the spirit of patriotism in members and the community at large Participation Requirements:

- District Masters are to either hold a competition among their Assemblies' Color Guards or select their District's best Assembly Color Guard Team.
- Each District must submit one video, between three to five minutes in length, showcasing its Color Guard Team's skills.

Judging Criteria:

The judges will evaluate each video based on the Color Guard's performance, specifically assessing:

- Proper wearing of the Fourth-Degree uniform
- Proper carrying and posting of the National Colors, Papal Flag, and State or Province Flag
- Timing
- Movements
- Commands, both verbal and silent
- Proper sword control

All judging will be conducted strictly according to the instructions outlined in the Supreme Drill Manual.

Submission Details:

- The videos must be submitted to the Office of the Supreme Master at suprememaster@kofc.org.
- If the video file exceeds size limits, please upload the video to YouTube or other similar type of social media platforms and email the link to the address above.
- The submission deadline is November 28, 2025.

We will select the top five Color Guards in the Order and recognize their District Masters. The winning District Masters will receive a prize which will be announced soon.

Updated Drill Manual

The Drill Manual contains significant changes including certification of Color Corps Members in Marching and Manual of the Sword (Appendix A), as well as appearance standards (Appendix C).

Could you wear the Fourth Degree uniform blazer with other slacks and a regular tie when going out with his wife? The answer is: No

Letter to Mommy and Daddy after Abortion

Mommy... why did you hurt me?

Daddy did you know?
Why didn't you fight for my life?

Jesus said I would have looked just like you Your hair, your eyes, and smile

I know you didn't mean it
Mommy

Daddy I know you love me.

Daddy, you will never get to see me

You'll miss my first words, you'll miss me fall and get up.

Mommy, you'll never get to comb my hair or paint my nails, you'll miss me go to kindergarten

You guys will miss my whole life And I will to....

But don't worry, I am with Jesus now.... Next time think about what you are doing, and who you are hurting,

I AM A PERSON

Mommy, Daddy, I love you, wish you would have loved me too

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer Partners Needed for Religious Education

As we begin our RE year, we are looking for people who would commit to praying by name for one or more students weekly this school year. What does this entail? At least once a week you take a few moments to pray for your student(s) in your regular daily prayers. At the start of the year you will be given your student(s) first name only and asked to pray for them all year long.

Our hope is to have all of our students covered in prayer this year!

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Knights of Columbus®

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
