the greater glory of God.

Lord Jesus Christ, who is called the Prince of Peace,
who are yourself our peace and reconciliation,
who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace.
Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice,
and brotherly love.

Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.

Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.

May all peoples on the earth become as brothers and sisters.

May longed for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all.

Supreme Chaplain's Monthly Challenge

July 2026

“While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off. When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well.” (Gospel for July 19, Mt 13:25-26)

In the midst of his suffering, Job asked, “Why do the wicked keep on living, grow old, become mighty in power?” (Job 21:7). It seems to human eyes an injustice: the good suffer while the evil prosper. But Jesus explains that God “makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust” (Mt 5:45). He is a patient God, and we must “consider the patience of our Lord as salvation” (2 Pt 3:15a). God is patient with sinners — including us.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to reach out to a family member or friend and invite them to go to the sacrament of penance.

Questions for Reflection:

In what way are you like wheat, and in what ways are you like weeds? Are you envious or disturbed by those who lead unholy lives but seem to prosper? Do you find it difficult to love the “weeds” in your life, to pray for and work toward their salvation?

My argument for Going with God:

I've used this reflection before, but I think sometimes it's important to remind ourselves of what really matters in our lives. Father John sent this to me a few years ago, and I go back to it from time to time just to help me stay centered, to stay humbled.

The author is not known, but when I did some digging, I learned this is generally attributed to a confederate soldier during the Civil War.

"I asked God for strength, that I might achieve; I was made weak that I might learn humbly to obey.

I asked for health that I might do great things; I was given sickness that I might do better things.

I asked for riches that I might be happy; I was given poverty that I might be wise.

I asked for power to have the praise of others; I was given weakness to feel the need for God.

I asked for all things that I might enjoy life; I was given life that I may enjoy all things.

I received nothing I asked for - but everything I hoped for....

Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayer was answered: I am, among all people, most richly blessed".

This soldier's prayer calls us, I think, to look past our ego's, to humble ourselves, to look past the noise all around us and to find the center, the middle, where we better understand what is truly important, where we can more clearly see the face of Jesus in everyone around us.

This soldier's prayer calls us to accept our weakness's, to embrace them as our strength's. Paul tells us, "When I am weak, that is when I am strongest".

Jesus sought out the weak, the poor, the least of us and exulted them, He went among sinners, not to celebrate their sin, but to bring them out of their sin.

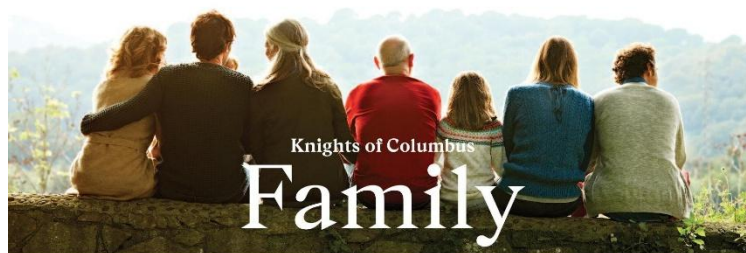

And so, my brothers, that's the message here, a message of humility for all of us. In our humility we are ready for God to take us out of our sin, and when God comes to take us out of our sins, go with Him.

There's a phrase I've heard all my life growing up in New Mexico, "Vaya Con Dios" - Go with God. Seems particularly appropriate here doesn't it.

Amen

The 50 green chili burritos I sold to Val, and she gave to residents of the Veterans Integration Center, were great hits. (See below)

Good morning, Val,

The burritos were a big hit! Several residents were waiting for them, and they shared how great they tasted. Since they were dropped off right before lunch, I'm certain they didn't last long after I left.

I'd be happy to do this again—just let me know when the next Knights burrito event is, and we can make it happen. It's truly a win all around: the Knights raise money, and our veterans enjoy a delicious burrito.

Have a great week!

Military Appreciation Month is a time to pause and reflect on the courage, service, and sacrifice of the men and women who have worn our nation's uniform. For generations, members of the United States Armed Forces have answered the call to serve, placing duty above self and enduring long separations, hardships, and unimaginable challenges in defense of our freedoms.

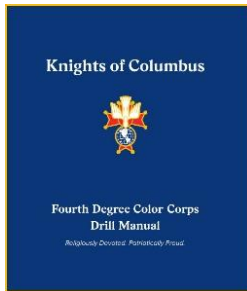

This month also reminds us of the sacrifices made by military families, who serve in their own way through every deployment, move, and homecoming. Together, their commitment and resilience represent the very best of our nation. As we honor those who have served and those who continue to serve, may we never forget the cost of freedom or the debt of gratitude we owe to America's heroes.

This year, Wreaths Across America embraces the theme "Remember Me" to honor not just those who served collectively, but each individual name, family, and story. As our nation approaches its 250th anniversary, our year-long mission to Remember, Honor and Teach has never been more meaningful.

Help us keep their individual names and stories alive.

Message From Fourth Degree Director of Training

Proper Present Sword

At a recent honor guard at my Parish, we had 14 Sir Knights that came early in the week for an Honor Guard.

How thankful we were for so many to show during the week. Our brothers that attended were mostly retired, and mainly over the age of 70.

We practiced our entrance, recession, and escorting the gifts for 30 minutes prior to the mass.

After mass the deacon serving was a Fourth-Degree brother Knight and member of our assembly. I asked, "how did we look?"

His response was one I was waiting for, "You guys looked great, but your swords were everywhere"

When dealing with an honor guard of men who varied in age from the late 50's to the early 80's, how does the honor guard stay consistent?

Practice is certainly a top choice but also keeping in mind the strength of your members and knowing if any member may have lost the ability to hold a sword at attention for a long period of time. This would require the CCC, Marshal, or whoever is leading the honor guard to be sensitive to when you go to present, where you place your weaker members in line, and how long you wait before you line up. Let's be sensitive to our aging members who have given a lot of time, effort, and energy to the Fourth Degree, we want them to participate as long as they can, but to also make sure that we are presenting ourselves in the best possible way. Any other suggestions you have would be appreciated and shared.

Just to refresh all of us, here is the proper present sword for all honor guards.

Fraternally,

Michael J. Porter, PSD,FM,FVSM

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
